Invitation to take part in a research study of autistic and non-autistic adults

Aim: This study aims to explore social experiences in autistic and non-autistic adults.

We are looking for volunteers, aged 18+ (no upper age limit), with a fluent understanding of English to complete some online questionnaires about their social experiences, mental health, characteristics, and interests, which is expected to take approximately 30 minutes.

To participate, you must have received a diagnosis of autism or not identify as autistic and not have an intellectual disability.
