Autism Support

1. Scottish Autism

Dundee Connections

This is Scottish Autism's information, advice and support hub in Dundee. Connections provides information and support for adults who identify as autistic, at any point of their journey, with or without a formal diagnosis, either in person or virtually, through 1:1 appointments or drop ins. The service also provides peer support groups and can direct individuals to community social activities and other support services in Dundee.

Call: 03030 034020

Email: dundeeconnections@scottishautism.org

Website: <https://www.scottishautism.org/service-locations/dundee-connections/>

Click and Connect

Click and Connect offers free online groups via Zoom. These groups include an Art Group for those who enjoy being creative, and a Mindfulness for Autism Group for those who are looking to reduce the impact of stress.

The groups are a great way for autistic adults to come together virtually and meet new and like-minded people in a safe and friendly environment.

Website: <https://www.scottishautism.org/service-locations/click-and-connect/>

2. Autism Initiatives

Late Diagnostic Support

This is a National Late Diagnosis Group programme (LDG) – online and in-person. Development of the programme has been led by autistic staff and shaped by its participants.

The seven session, neuro-affirming programme covers a range of topics, and provides opportunities for participants to connect with others who share similar experiences to them.

We deliver online groups, so it doesn't matter where you live, you can take part. Zoom sessions take place on:

Mondays – 5pm
Tuesdays – 5:30pm
Wednesdays – 1pm
Wednesdays – 4pm
Thursdays – 1pm
Thursdays – 5pm

Anyone wanting to book a place can email LDG@aiscotland.org.uk.

However, there are also opportunities to join in-person groups if you live in the following locations: Edinburgh & Lothian, Scottish Borders, Tayside and Highland.
